KPMI participates in two international studies of Horizon 2020 aimed to improve tuberculosis diagnostics:

- A-Patch - Autonomous Patch for Real-Time Detection and Epidemic Control of Infectious Disease

- PITBUL - Point-of-care Implementation of TB testing with Ultra-Fast Local heating PCR

The organizers of the symposium are World Health Organization Collaborating Centre for Research and Training in Management of MDR-TB of Latvia, Centre for TB and Lung Disease of Riga East University Hospital, Tartu University Hospital, Hospital of Lithuanian University of Health Sciences.

The symposium was held in Riga on November 23-24.